DID YOU KNOW?

The annual Sweet Land of Liberty 4th of July Parade first began in 1985. The parade was founded by Annette Boyd, also known as the Parade Lady. The parade is nonmotorized and is for children 18 and under. The parade starts and ends at Boyd Park by Sweetland Amphitheatre, named for the parade and the beloved founder of this special tradition. For more information on local history, visit the Legacy Museum on Main at 136 Main Street in beautiful downtown LaGrange.
